

Post-crisis speculations— What does society expect from knowledge production?

XIX

SUMMER SCHOOL

GRADUATE SCHOOL GLOBAL AND AREA STUDIES

Leipzig University | 20–22 September 2021

PROGAMME

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

Leipzig Research Centre Global Dynamics

RESEARCH
ACADEMY
LEIPZIG

SFB 1199
Processes of Spatialization
under the Global Condition

Funded by
DFG

Monday, 20 September 2021

9.45 am

Opening Remarks

Matthias Middell (Leipzig)

10 am–11.30 am

Lecture

Martin Bauch (Leipzig):

More than a distant mirror. The use of premodern history for the Anthropocene

12.30 pm–2.30 pm

Workshop I “Crisis”

Axel Körner (London / Leipzig)

Maxi Weibel (Leipzig):

“Youth protest” of the 1980s and the production of knowledge about youth in the FRG

Tugce Özdemir (Leipzig):

Family in the Clamp of Neoliberalism and Neoconservatism: AK Party Family Policies and Discourses

Melek Zorlu (Leipzig):

Cultural Hegemony and the Function, Position and Responsibility of the Intellectuals

Wyatt Constantine (Leipzig):

Embracing speculation and liquid identity: The entrepreneurial subject in a post crisis world

5 pm

get together

Venue: Emil-Fuchs-Strasse 1, backyard

Tuesday, 21 September 2021

9 am–11 am

Workshop II “Global Health”

Marian Burchardt (Leipzig) / Maren Möhring (Leipzig)

Manuel Harms (Leipzig):

Understanding informal knowledge practices of AMR stakeholders through remote approaches

William Munashe (Addis Abeba / Leipzig):

Challenging knowledge production in disability issues from the Global North to the Global South

Gus Chan (Leipzig):

Post-Epidemic: Knowledge Production on Early Chinese Newspapers after the Manchurian Plague (1910–1911)

Elliot Lee (Leipzig):

Islamic Practice, Chinese Public Health? An Overview of Modernist Muslim Advocations on Fasting in Chinese Print Media, 1900–1960

Farnoosh Milde (Leipzig):

Desire or Forced to Change: Somali-German NGOs and the abolishment of female genital cutting

Lunch Break

2 pm–4 pm

Workshop II “Mobilities”

Steffi Marung (Leipzig) / Hakob Matevosyan (Leipzig)

Alexander Dontsov (Leipzig):

The Politics of Technology: Strategic Use under the Global Condition

Cedric Jürgensen (Leipzig):

(Re)bordering Europe: The Impacts of Brexit in Calais and Dover – a project sketch

Mariya Petrova (Leipzig):

People as infrastructure: enabling urban mobility in the condition of open and hidden contestations in today's Usbekistan

Post-crisis speculations—What does society expect from knowledge production?

WEDNESDAY, 22 September 2021

9 am–11am

Panel Knowledge Production

Chair: Elisabeth Kaske (Leipzig)

Mo Wang (Leipzig):

The Representational Significance of Lamaism in Ancient Chinese Architectural Technology

Adam Bobeck (Leipzig):

What are we really producing?

Temitope Faloye (Leipzig):

Soft skill exhibition as connected to the mechanisms of knowledge production

Discussants: N.N.

Lunch Break

12 pm–1 pm

Evaluation Session

Thursday, 23 September 2021

1 pm–3 pm

Lunch together

Venue: Hotel “Vienna House” (Goethestrasse 11, 04109 Leipzig)

Venues

Graduate School Global and Area Studies
Emil-Fuchs-Str. 1, 04105 Leipzig

Hotel “Vienna House”
Goethestr. 11, 04109 Leipzig)

Contact

Martina Keilbach

Universität Leipzig
Graduate School Global and Area Studies

Emil-Fuchs-Str. 1
04105 Leipzig

Tel: +49 (0)341/973 02 86
E-mail: phd@uni-leipzig.de
<https://home.uni-leipzig.de/~gsgas>